

THE BORDEN BUSINESS TREE

A REMINDER TO MAINTAIN A MEANINGFUL CONNECTION TO WHAT YOU ARE DOING DAILY

We can all use a little perspective - it's easy to see what flourishes above ground, but it's hard to see what's under the surface. No matter how easy it looks, or how successful someone may appear to be, chances are, they are facing the same challenges as you are, or once did. Don't jump to conclusions about others. You never know of their struggles or gifts, and where they really are in their own work and life. Focus on you and your work. You deserve it.
